THE ECOSYSTEM EVENT

Not just finished products. Not just cannabis. The show connects every infused-products business from production, to co-manufacturing, financing, packaging, and distribution

Supply + cultivation

Outdoor hemp farming, genetics, biomass, grow inputs, irrigation, specialized equipment.

Science + manufacturing

Extraction, ingredients, formulation, testing, dosing, co-packing and production scale.

Market + retail

Finished goods, packaging, labeling, distribution, retail, and buyer development.

Capital + services

Banking, finance, consulting, insurance, legal, compliance, data and marketing support.

The Infused Ecosystem fully curated – A Clear Reason to Exhibit

FROM ROOTS TO RETAIL – THE FULL VALUE STREAM

A clear value-chain story makes the show easier to navigate and for buyers to understand...

IT STARTS WITH FARMING AND GENETICS

INFUSED begins in the field: genetics, biomass quality, farm technology and equipment that moves supply at scale.

Outdoor farming

Field production, biomass, irrigation, agronomy and crop quality.

Genetics + breeding

Variety selection, seed stock, clone programs and trait development.

Specialized tractors

Harvesters, tractors, trailers, field implements and farm automation.

Grow inputs

Soil, nutrients, pest management, irrigation and environmental monitoring.

“Roots ” is not a side category – it is where everything starts

SCIENCE TURNS PLANTS INTO PRODUCTS

Extraction, ingredients, formulation and manufacturing partners help brands create consistent, scalable, shelf-ready infused products.

PACKAGING & LABELING – THE CORNERSTONE OF COMPLIANCE

Packaging, labeling, compliance and retail integration – the companies that ensure product integrity and make retail execution easier.

Packaging

Cans, bottles, pouches, jars, cartons, child-resistant formats, display-ready packaging

Labeling

Compliance, QR codes, batch IDs, warning statements and claims support

Retail technology

POS, payments, inventory, menu boards, merchandising and category management

Compliance support

Regulatory review, testing docs, licensing support, SOPs and market-readiness

RETAIL REQUIRES MORE THAN JUST BRANDS

Buyers need finished products, but they also need distribution, merchandising, logistics and channel partners.

CANNABIS RETAIL

Dispensaries, MSOs, category buyers, purchasing teams, vendor onboarding

BEVERAGE + C-STORE

Functional beverage, hemp-derived drinks, specialty retail and emerging channel buyers

HOSPITALITY + VENUES

Restaurants, lounges, events, entertainment and experience-driven partnerships

DISTRIBUTION

Brokers, wholesalers, beverage distributors, logistics, fulfillment and route-to-market partners

PRODUCT DISCOVERY + DISTRIBUTION + CHANNEL DEVELOPMENT

THE BUSINESS SERVICES LAYER MATTERS

Banking, consulting, insurance and capital partners help infused companies grow, comply, protect and scale.

BANKING + PAYMENTS

Business banking, compliant payments, merchant services, cash management and lending

CONSULTING

Licensing, market entry, operations, product strategy, regulatory roadmaps and growth

INSURANCE

Product liability, crop, property, workers comp, D&O, event and distribution coverage

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

Legal, accounting, HR, data, marketing, media, compliance and software platforms

HOSTED BUYERS BRING BRANDS DIRECT ACCESS TO CRITICAL DECISION MAKERS

The INFUSED hosted buyers bring business leaders together to form key partnerships that match their category.

Retail buyers

New products, shelf placement, vendor onboarding and category expansion

Distributors + brokers

Routes to new regions, portfolio fit and wholesale relationships

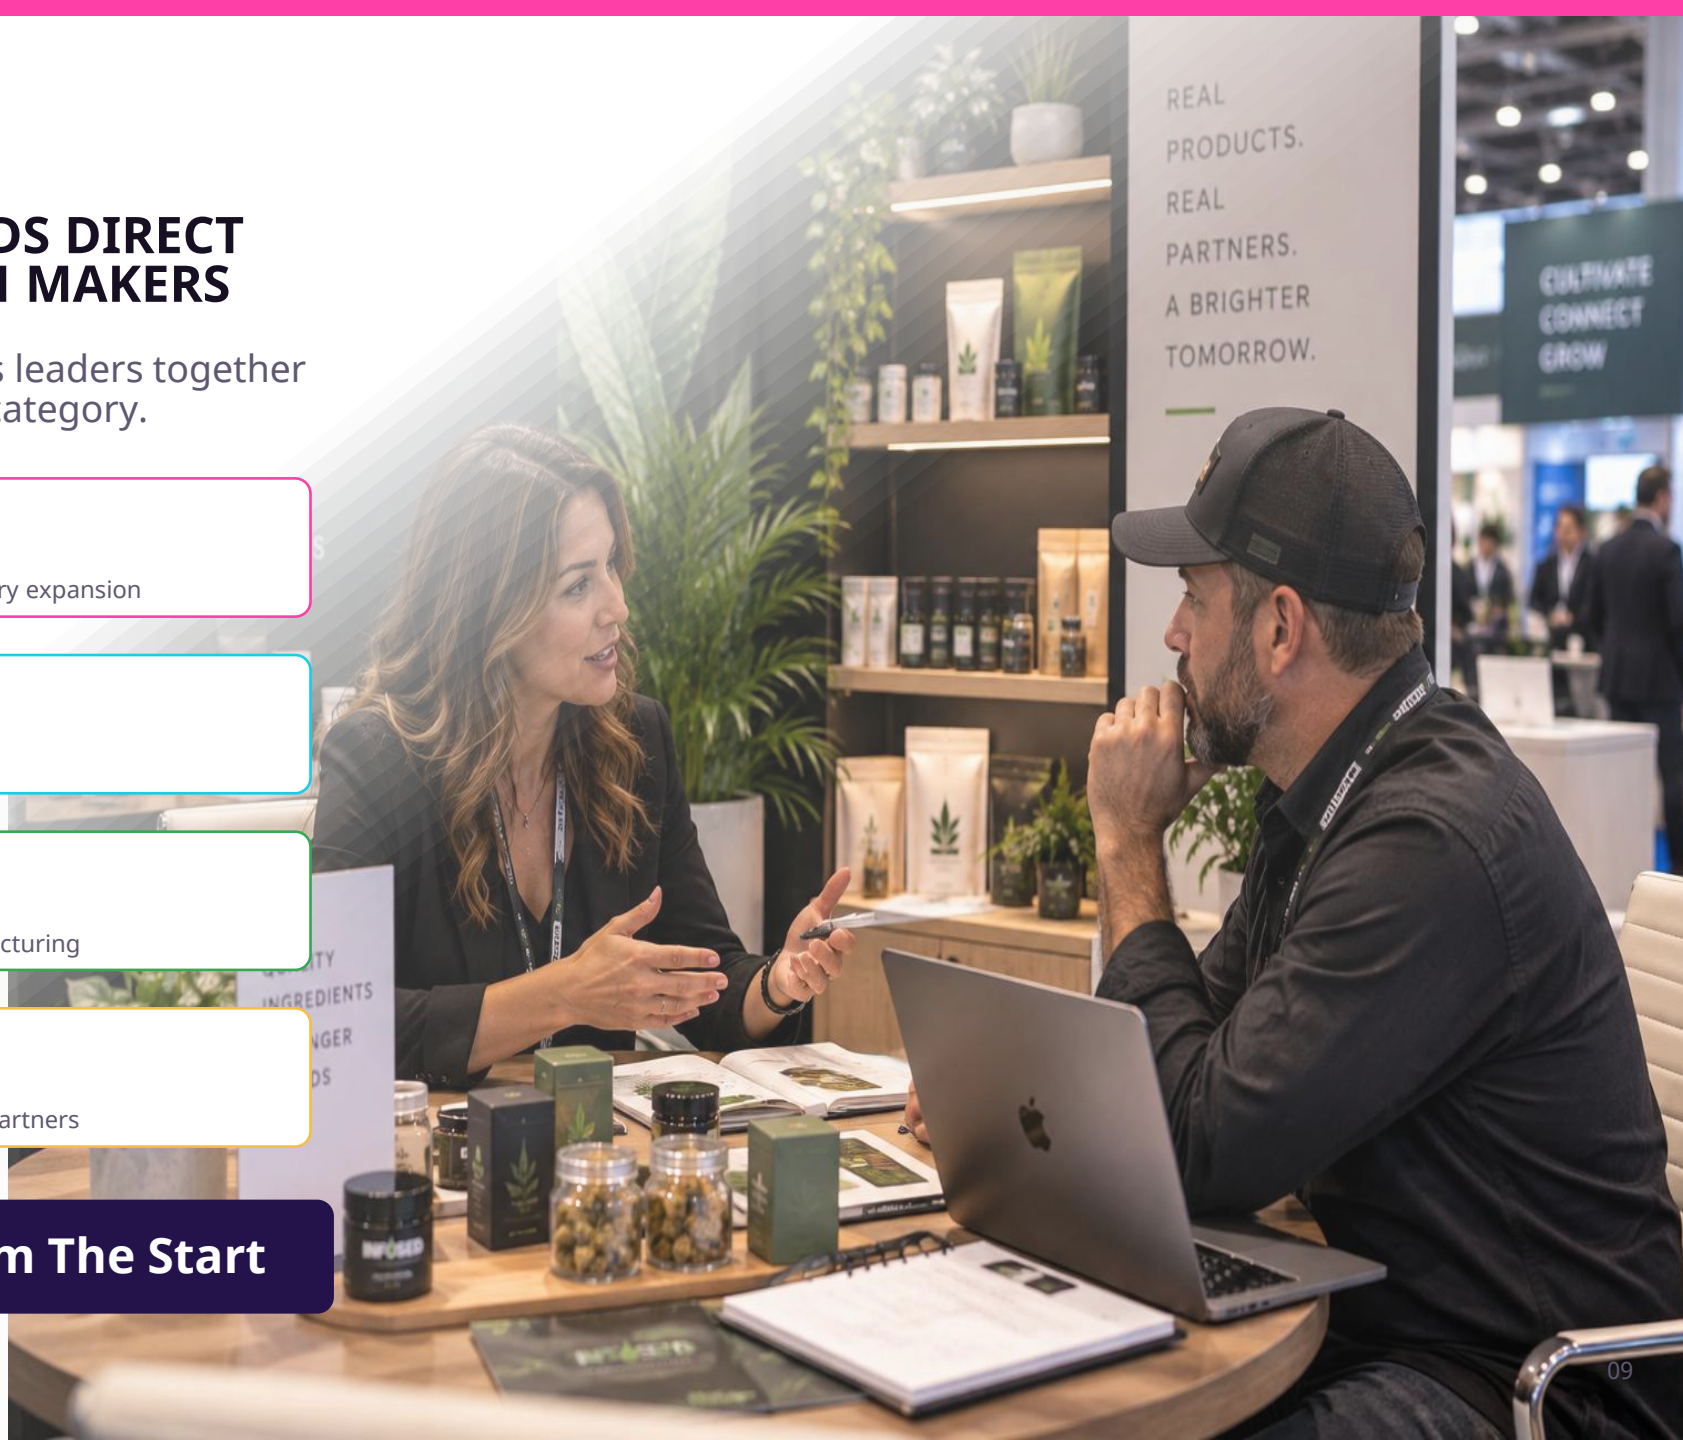

Supply-chain partners

Ingredients, co-packers, packaging, labels, logistics and manufacturing

Capital + services

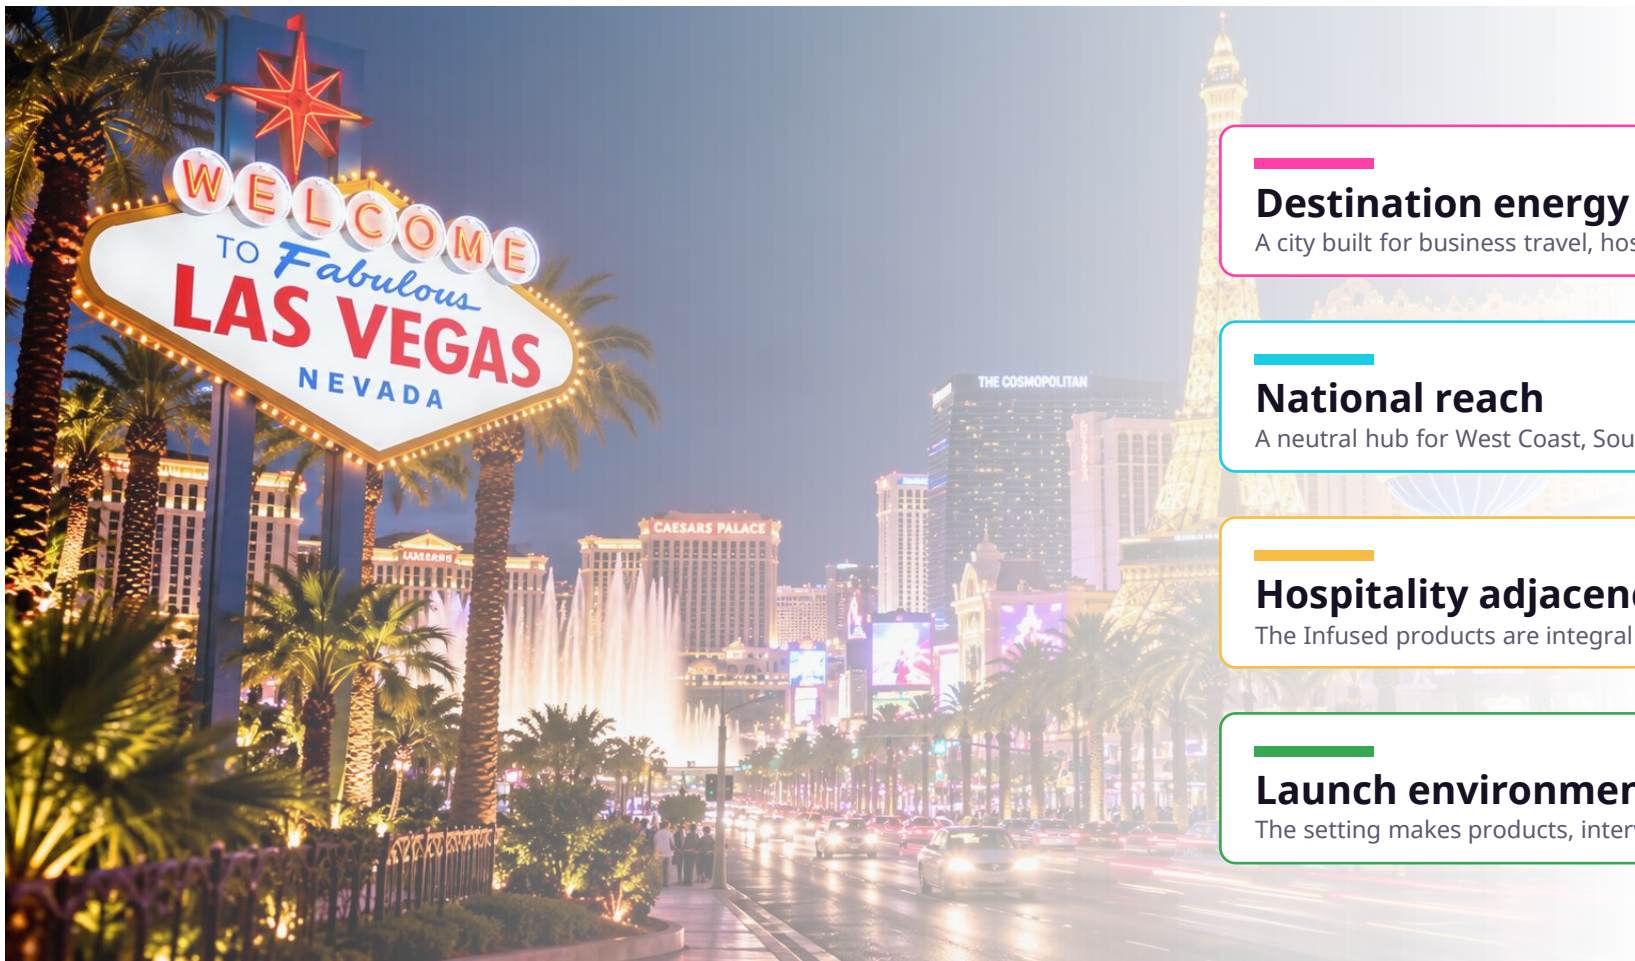

Banking, finance, insurance, legal, compliance and consulting partners
